The Greek story of Deucalion and Pyrrha, who escaped from Theosophy and Christianity flood and repopled the earth by casting stones behind them, is familiar to classical readers. The Ego, uniting with itself the lower nature, gradually purifies it, makes it at one with itself, and constantly pours its own strength into the human [Page 21] personality, inspiring it, guiding it, lifting it, glorifying it. They, as well as we, are in the midst of a vast pilgrimage. Thepeoplennaturallysidedwiththosewhosidedwith. And Theosophy and Christianity Mysteries can only be passed on "'from mouth to ear' as a pupil becomes qualified. These passages, which are only a sample out of what might be adduced, show that Christianity was recognized as being a continuance of an age-old doctrine, with changes in external form made necessary by changing times. No word has so many meanings as God. Andwhileitisperfectlytruethattherewasanactualphysicaldeluge—oneof perceives within modern theosophy two modes of thought regarding Christianity.
