TCS: How do you think being a former central New York television reporter and anchor prepared you for your career as a creative coach, speaker, author, and playwright? Life is yours to play with, to build and mold.

Outside of writing and speaking, I actually belong to a talent agency and do a lot of speaking. This dissertation explores two diametrically opposed behavioral risk factors. That decision brought her to where she is today - a place where she can help others find their true calling while learning to love themselves exactly as they are.

Or do I grow? I also had the honor of seeing a comedy play I wrote unfold on the stage. I mean talks that transform and move listeners to take action and buy from you, whether you deliver a keynote or a presentation.
