There is no charge against me in the whole of the present Report that could stand the test of an impartial inquiry on the spot, where my own explanations could be checked by the examination of witnesses. Schmitt also points out the often-forgotten fact that Platonism and Aristotelianism were not mutually exclusive, and he deals with the largely unexplored subject of the Aristotelian and other commentaries and translations pro- duced during the Renaissance, a field in which Garin's contribution has been of fundamental importance.
Walter Uumann's Origini medievaii del Rinascimento deals with the fas- cinating evolution of Western European civilization from a society modelled upon the structure of the universal Church, with emphasis being placed on man's twofold aim, ethical-pohtical and transcendental, to the rise of a more modern concept of the State, in which the revival and study of Roman law played a ma- jor .

is to be connected primarily with intellect, which is to be understood as a special unity in diversity. Look there, look there -" The vegetable world is just as essential to Les Bestiaires as it was to Les Olympiques but, whereas animals occur infrequently in Le Songe and Les Olympiques, Les Bestiaires is the novel most concerned with animals, not only with bulls, but with a greyhound dog, pigeons, cats, and horses.
